Shenzhen Sonida Digital Technology Co., Ltd. Joins the Micro Four Thirds System Standard Group

Tokyo, Japan, February 12, 2026 – OM Digital Solutions Corporation<sup>1</sup> and Panasonic Entertainment & Communication Co., Ltd.<sup>2</sup> jointly announced the Micro Four Thirds System standard in 2008 and have since been working together to promote it.

We are pleased to announce today that Shenzhen Sonida Digital Technology Co., Ltd. has declared its support for the Micro Four Thirds System standard and will be introducing compliant products to the market.

The Micro Four Thirds System is currently supported by 63 companies, including companies focusing on B2B operations. With the participation of Sonida, new products are expected to be added to the Micro Four Thirds lineup in the future. The possibilities unique to an open standard will further expand the enjoyment of imaging and video creation.

As the companies responsible for initiating both the Four Thirds System and the Micro Four Thirds System standards, OM Digital Solutions and Panasonic will continue to develop and enhance the product line-up to meet the diverse needs of our customers.
